In wholesale tech, your next opportunity is only as good as your supply

Success depends on more than just finding devices; it's about securing trusted, accurately graded stock from in-demand brands, at the right time, in the right condition, and at the right price.

For wholesalers, resellers and retailers who need consistency, speed, and confidence in every trade, Alchemy and Callisto offer the advantage you've been looking for.

A powerful partnership in circular tech

Alchemy is the fastest-growing global company in the circular tech market. We manage trade-in programs for some of the world's biggest OEMs, carriers, and retailers, giving us access to a consistent pipeline of high-quality pre-owned tech. With 16 processing facilities across 60+ countries, we provide global buyers with reliable, account-managed stock that supports sourcing at scale.

Callisto, Alchemy's secure online self-serve marketplace is designed for the wholesale market. Callisto offers a streamlined, one-click platform to buy and sell consistently graded, pre-owned tech. With over 3,000 registered buyers and more than 2 million devices traded annually, Callisto brings global marketplace flexibility and trusted supply together in one powerful platform.

What we offer

When you buy from us, you gain access to a broad range of in-demand product categories, including: Smartphones, tablets, laptops, desktops, wearables, gaming, accessories, home electronics including haircare and homecare devices.

Every device is professionally graded to industry standards, backed by KYS-compliant seller verification, and protected by secure escrow payments. Stock is sourced directly from OEMs, retailers, and carriers, giving you confidence in both origin and quality.
